

CAPITAL READINESS | ADVISORY | INVESTMENT FACILITATION

Before you raise capital, become fundable.

A two-page snapshot for founders, investors, family offices and corporate strategy teams evaluating XITIJ as an advisory and investment-facilitation partner.

Prepare

Narrative, model, data room and governance readiness

Structure

Mandates, milestones, risk signals and work products

Facilitate

Relevant investor, partner and expert-bench pathways

The XITIJ answer

Prepare the business before the introduction. Structure the story before the pitch. Facilitate conversations only when readiness and fit are clear.

For founder-led ventures, family businesses, investors and strategic stakeholders

Who should speak with XITIJ now?

Use this snapshot to qualify whether XITIJ is the right advisory, facilitation or expert-bench partner for the next stage.

Founder raising capital

You need a sharper deck, data room, financial model, governance hygiene and investor narrative before broad outreach.

Investor or family office

You want better-prepared founder conversations, readiness notes and clearer risk signals before deeper evaluation.

Corporate strategy team

You are assessing startup partnerships, strategic investment or acquisition pathways and need structured engagement support.

Senior CXO / expert

You want to join curated mandates where your experience can create measurable value for founder-led companies.

How the first engagement usually starts

- 30-45 minute discovery conversation
- Readiness and mandate-fit discussion
- Priority gap map and next-step recommendation
- Separate written terms where a formal engagement is appropriate
